COMPETITION FOR ONE EUROPEAN FELLOWSHIP
UNICREDIT & UNIVERSITIES FOSCOLO EUROPE

2nd Edition – year 2010
Academic year 2011/12

Article 1 – General rules

UniCredit & Universities Knight of Labor Ugo Foscolo Foundation announces the competition for one European fellowship in economic and financial subjects, in memory of “Knight of Labor Ugo Foscolo” former chairman of Banco di Roma (and in whose name the Foundation itself was established).

The competition is open to graduates1 of any university located in any of the 22 countries where the UniCredit Group operates2 (in the following “EU Group perimeter”) who (i) completed or are about to complete a Ph.D. in economics or finance in a university outside the EU Group perimeter, (ii) are currently performing their research and teaching activity in a university or institution outside the EU Group perimeter, and (iii) wish to continue their research at any European university located within the EU Group perimeter.

Article 2 - Applications Procedure and Deadline

Candidates may only apply online using the application available on the Foundation’s website at http://www.unicreditanduniversities.eu. Documentation accompanying the application must be submitted exclusively online in PDF format and must be written in English.

Applications must be received by the compulsory deadline of October 31, 2010. Failure to do so may result in exclusion from the competition. As soon as the procedure will be considered completed, the candidate will receive a confirmation message to her/his e-mail address confirming the full acceptance of her/his application.

Applications must be accompanied by the following documents (in PDF format). Failure to do so may result in exclusion from the competition.

1. Curriculum Vitae
2. A copy of a current identity document (in the original language)
3. Documentation attesting possession of academic qualifications (e.g., copies of undergraduate and Ph.D. diplomas; self-certification is also allowed)
4. For candidates who have not yet obtained a Ph.D., official transcripts of the grades obtained in the exams of the Ph.D. program
5. Description of the research projects (2-3 pages)
6. At least two letters of reference from teachers who have good knowledge of the candidate’s research work (directly sent by the teachers via e-mail to the Foundation addresses specified below)
7. A statement of the locations where the candidate would like to take up the fellowship
8. A letter expressing the willingness to host the candidate
9. By September 30 of each year, the scholar must produce a report on the progress of his/her research work, attaching the assessment of the scientific manager of his/her chosen location.

At the end of the second year, one or more experts chosen by the Scientific Committee will assess the scholar’s research results. The Scientific Committee will then express its judgment on the winner’s activity. Based on this assessment, the Foundation, in turn based on its own final decision, will either confirm the fellowship for the next two years or terminate it.

At the end of the fellowship, the scholar shall produce a final report.

Article 3 - Scientific Committee

The Scientific Committee will be responsible for the selection procedure and will identify the winner of the fellowship. The Scientific Committee is appointed by the Foundation’s Board of Directors, chaired by Mr. Dieter Rampl, and is composed of at least five members among experts in economics and finance from the main European countries.

In assessing candidates, the Scientific Committee will take into account their academic curriculum, letters of reference, works produced, and research projects. The Scientific Committee may invite candidates for an interview or seminar. The fellowship will be awarded by the Chairman of the Foundation, on the basis of the final judgment of the Scientific Committee by 15 January 2011.

Article 4 – Fellowship Amount, Duration, and Renewals

The fellowship will start on October 1, 2011. The Foundation will pay the winner an annual sum of € 60,000, gross of all taxes, to cover all costs and expenses borne by the winner for research purposes and attendance at conferences.

The winner must transfer to one of the university departments indicated in the application, which have expressed their willingness to accommodate him/her and enable him/her to continue, at that location, his/her research activity.

The duration of the fellowship is two years, renewable for a further two years.

During the fellowship period, the Foundation reserves the right to ask the scholar to detail the status of his/her research work at seminars, individual discussions, or conferences. By September 30 of each year, the scholar must produce a report on the progress of his/her research work, attaching the assessment of the scientific manager of his/her chosen location.

At the end of the second year, one or more experts chosen by the Scientific Committee will assess the scholar’s research results. The Scientific Committee will then express its judgment on the winner’s activity. Based on this assessment, the Foundation, in turn based on its own final decision, will either confirm the fellowship for the next two years or terminate it.

At the end of the fellowship, the scholar shall produce a final report.

Article 5 – Work Opportunities with UniCredit Group Companies

UniCredit may at its discretion offer employment to the scholar (during the fellowship period at the European university which has accepted him/her or after such period) with Group companies on subjects of interest to the Group, related to the scholar’s areas of research.

Article 6 – Acceptance of the Fellowship Terms and Conditions

Taking part in the competition entails unconditional acceptance of all the articles of this notice.
