Taiwan Fellowship

The Taiwan Fellowship was established by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of China (Taiwan) to encourage experts and scholars worldwide to conduct research in Taiwan's universities or research institutions, thereby promoting international partnerships and mutual understanding.

Eligibility

- Fellowship recipients should be foreign professors, associate professors, assistant professors, doctoral candidates, or research fellows of equivalent level, in foreign academic/research institutions.

Awards

- The recipients residing abroad can have one roundtrip economy class ticket partially or fully subsidized between their place of residence and Taiwan, as per ROC government regulations.

- Monthly stipends are granted as follows:
  - Professors, associate professors, research fellows, and associate research fellows: NT$60,000 (approx. USD$2,065).
  - Assistant professors, assistant research fellows, and doctoral candidates: NT$50,000 (approx. USD$1,725).

- The minimum duration of the fellowship is 3 months, and the maximum is 1 year.

- Accident insurance of NT$1,000,000 is provided.
The Center for Chinese Studies at the National Central Library is responsible for administering the Taiwan Fellowship. For further information, please contact an R.O.C. (Taiwan) Embassy or Representative Office near you or the Center for Chinese Studies (CCS), National Central Library, Taipei, Taiwan.

- CCS Address: 20 Chungshan S. Road, Taipei, Taiwan 10001, R.O.C.
- Tel: +886-2-23147321 Fax: +886-2-23712126
- E-mail: twfellowship@ncl.edu.tw